

Formal Complaint Options for Student Complaints of Discrimination and Harassment

If your complaint is against...	And it concerns...	Then your complaint may be addressed by...
ANOTHER STUDENT	Discrimination or harassment other than sexual misconduct	Consult with your dean of student affairs or academic dean for possible disciplinary action under the relevant school disciplinary procedures or
	Discrimination or harassment specifically on the basis of race or ethnicity	President's Procedure for Addressing Students' Complaints of Racial or Ethnic Harassment (President's Procedure)
	Sexual misconduct	University-Wide Committee on Sexual Misconduct (UWC)
A FACULTY MEMBER OR ADMINISTRATOR IN YOUR SCHOOL	Any kind of complaint other than sexual misconduct	Dean's Procedure for Student Complaints or
	Discrimination or harassment specifically on the basis of race or ethnicity	President's Procedure
	Sexual misconduct	UWC
A FACULTY MEMBER OR ADMINISTRATOR IN ANOTHER SCHOOL OR NOT SUBJECT TO DISCIPLINE BY YOUR DEAN	Any kind of complaint other than sexual misconduct	Provost's Procedure for Student Complaints or
	Discrimination or harassment specifically on the basis of race or ethnicity	President's Procedure
	Sexual misconduct	UWC
ANYONE	Discrimination or harassment specifically on the basis of race or ethnicity	President's Procedure
	Sexual misconduct	UWC

- ❖ Students are encouraged to discuss their options for informal resolution with the OEOP, deans in their schools, or the Title IX Coordinators for complaints of sexual misconduct.
- ❖ The Dean's, Provost's and President's Procedures require students to bring forward complaints within 45 days of the action complained of.